

HB 501—Additional Information

Submitted by: Shirley K. Brown, Administrator
Child and Family Services Division
Department of Public Health and Human Services

- California: Maximum of 6 children, including the foster parent's children (Effective April 3, 2011)
- Colorado: Maximum of 4 foster children with no more than 8 total with foster parent's children
- Idaho: Maximum of 6 children, including foster parent's children
- Minnesota: Maximum of 6 foster children with a total of 8 including the foster parent's children
- Montana: Maximum of 7 children, including the foster parents' children
Exception can be granted on a case-by-case basis
- Nebraska: Maximum of 9 children, including the foster parent's children
- North Dakota: Maximum of 4 foster children (unless sibling group or exception granted)
- Oregon: Maximum of 4 children per single parent household, including foster parent's children
Maximum of 7 children per two parent household, including foster parent's children
- South Dakota: Maximum of 6 children, including the foster parent's children
- Utah: Maximum of 3 unrelated foster children, including foster parent's children
- Washington: Maximum of 4 children per single parent household, including foster parent's children
Maximum of 6 children per two parent household, including foster parent's children
- Wyoming: Maximum of 5 children, excluding the foster parent's children